KOALA '73

Debbie Youngerman

Hi Deb -

It's weird writing not even to someone who's not even here any more. Good Luck in the future. Have a great summer! Love Claud

Debbie,

I'm sorry you graduated early. I feel if you had stayed at Poly we could have become close seeing we have several of the same friends. You're a beautiful girl and I highly admire you. Keep in touch!

Love,

Richelle Youngerman

Debbie -

We both have 2 mutual best friends, but I still haven't gotten to know you like I want to. You are one of the sweetest & funniest girls I know. - (Not to mention one of the prettiest.) I really want to get to know you better, (We don't have much time,) but if we don't I'll always remember you fondly. The breakfasts on Friday morning were great.
I'm so glad us 4 girls decided to do that. I like you a lot.

Love,
Kim Stelzner

Your probably wondering why
I wrote your name so much.
I know how to spell the few names mostly because its one of the few names
I know you going to R.C. You'll be very close then and I can see you more often and maybe we can get out on the town some night that's up to you my minds already made up! See ya next year
Love

Oh, Deb, Selby, Debbie, Deborah! I don't know what to say. I'm so sad. I feel like a trap-door has just been sprung from underneath me. (ISNT THAT THE MOST DRAMATIC LINE YOU'VE EVER HEARD?? YOU BET!) Anyway, I do feel rather empty at the moment because well... um... Oh, damn, you know what you mean to me! We've both been thru so much. You graduated early (as I should have done,) but we stayed as close as ever. Thank-you for the "little gift" before the prom; Hic-cup^{oo} you know how much it was appreciated. (HA-HE-HO!) Oh, CRUD! What can I say?! I love you so much. Remember all the talks we had about certain boys and how much we helped each other? (Bla. When I think back on those guys, I feel rather ill.) Remember when we all went dancing and that guy ~~that~~ thought he was such a STUD? (Someoneotta tell him.) YUCK! And remember the CRAB COOKER and those drunk ladies next to us and the man who was yelling at his wife?! I know that I've gotten a little bitter this year because of things that have happened, but it's always comforting to know that you understand. I'm sure I'll snap out of it as soon as I get away from some of the POLY crowd. (And you know who I mean.) I wonder what will be happening this time next year. (SYCRONIZE YOUR WATCHES!!)

I Love You a 1,000 times over, Deb! See You this summer.

Jilly

just as this flower is blooming we are now beginning a new phase of our lives. You are really a special person and I love you for it. I hope your life is always filled with happiness as you will always bring happiness to others! Please keep in touch.
Good luck! Much love, birth (burth) n. [ME. birthe, burde <OE. byrde, gebyrde <beran, to BEAR¹] 1. the act of bringing forth offspring 2. the act of being born; nativity 3. origin or natal background [a Spaniard by birth] 4. good or noble lineage [a man of birth] 5. the beginning of anything [the birth of a nation] 6. an inherited or natural inclination or talent [an actor by birth] 7. [Archaic] a person or thing born or produced — vi., vt. [Dial.] to give birth (to)—give birth to 1. to bring forth (offspring) 2. to be the cause or origin of; originate; create.

Poly is a place of creativity of hands and minds. This creativity is an expression of the idea of birth, and is always in the making. Birth is being aware of everything around you and inside of you. Finding means of expression for these new awarenesses and giving birth to them is a full-time and life-long adventure. Poly students show their awareness of life through participation in sports, R.O.T.C., school and club activities; through creativity in fine arts, industrial arts, and compositions in English classes; through discovery of language, mathematical and scientific theory; and through living each day as it comes. To experience every moment and to live each second is to be renewed, to say, "I am alive," and to experience the joy of continual BIRTH

'72-'73 - Year of Impact

		Olympics in Munich
		Watergate
September	1	Bobby Fischer became International Chess Champion
November	7	26th Amendment went into effect—18-year-old vote
November	7	Election '72—Nixon/Agnew versus McGovern/Shriver
December	7	Apollo 17 began its journey to the moon
December	26	Death of Harry S Truman, 33rd President
January	22	Death of Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th President
January	27	Official end of the Vietnam War

The official ending of the Vietnam War on the 27th of January brought about the return of prisoners of war, an event long-awaited by the American public.

Flags across the nation were lowered for two consecutive months in mourning for:

Harry S Truman, 33rd President
Lyndon Baines Johnson, 36th President

The Olympics in Munich displayed the world's finest athletic skill, but the splendor of the games was marred by the tragic deaths of several members of the Israeli team.

David Cleveland imitates well that moment of awareness that comes but once in the young sophomore's life.

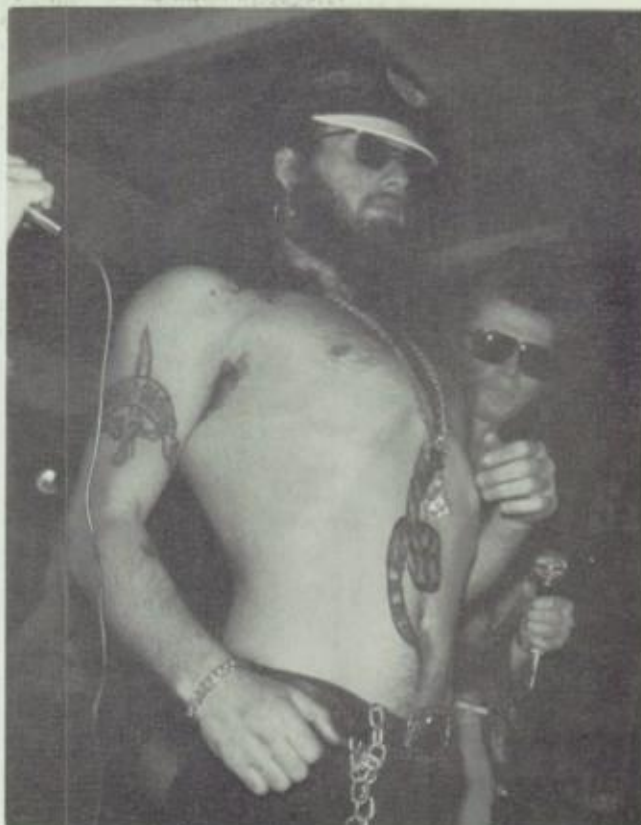

It's finally here. The first big day of high school and Sophomores Larry Low-rider, Paul Peculiar, Mary Mascara, Barbara Bigtop, and Leslie Lovely are raring to go.

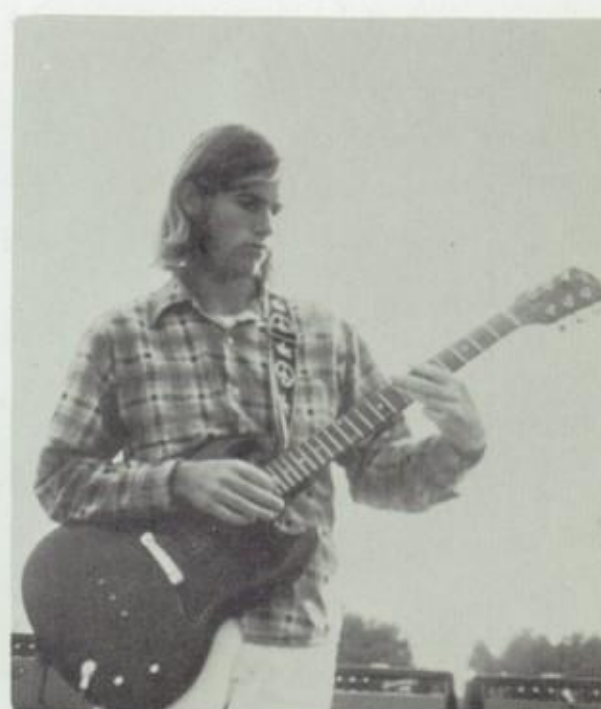

"Sophomores, this is your life," announces Randy Jesser.

"I would rather die than marry Demetrius!" protests Hermia (Robin Moss).

"Shall we peruse the script a bit more, my dear?" says Doug Crockett to Cathy Webb.

"It's one for all and all for one," agree the rude mechanicals.

The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie

CAST

Bert Anderson, Claudine Bach, Tim Ballard, Sioux BenVeniste, Evan Brown, Sue Cohen, Jodi Duncan, Linda Gardner, Dorothy Glover, Leslie Horn, Mike Lewis, Tricia Lizee, Peggy Milson, Mary Scarborough, Sharon Silverglate, Linda Summers, Karin Westerling, Cyndie Wilson, Cynthia Woolley.

Sister Helena (Karin Westerling) relates the story of Miss Brodie to the reporter (Mike Lewis).

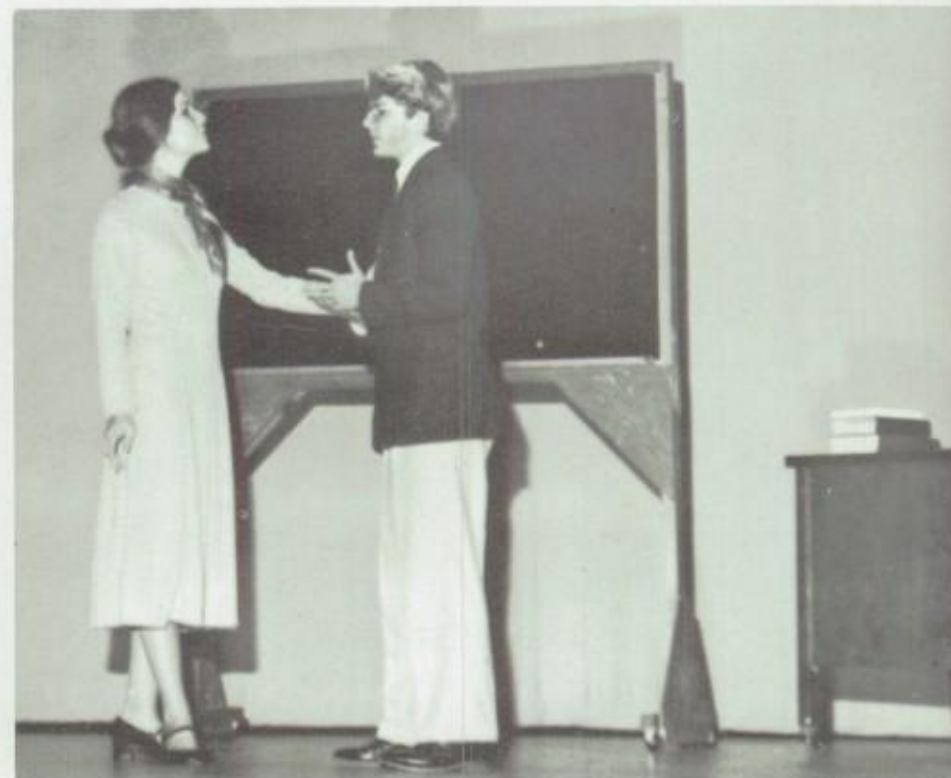

Evil Miss 'MacKay (Cyndie Wilson) finally succeeds in removing Miss Brodie from her job.

"My girls are the creme de la creme," says Miss Jean Brodie (Cynthia Woolley).

Mary MacGregor (Claudine Bach) pours through art books while Jenny (Sue Cohen) poses for Teddy Lloyd (Evan Brown).

Sophisticated Miss Brodie gives the bumbling music teacher, (Bert Anderson) a lesson in life.

"My you have lovely legs," says Phylia (Kerry Beardsley) to Hero (Bert Anderson).

"How can you tell it's a baby?" asks Hysterium (David Parks) to Erronius (Tim Ballard). "I can't see anything."

"Comedy tonight!" bellows Prologus (Randy Jesser) as the Proteans watch in wonder.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum

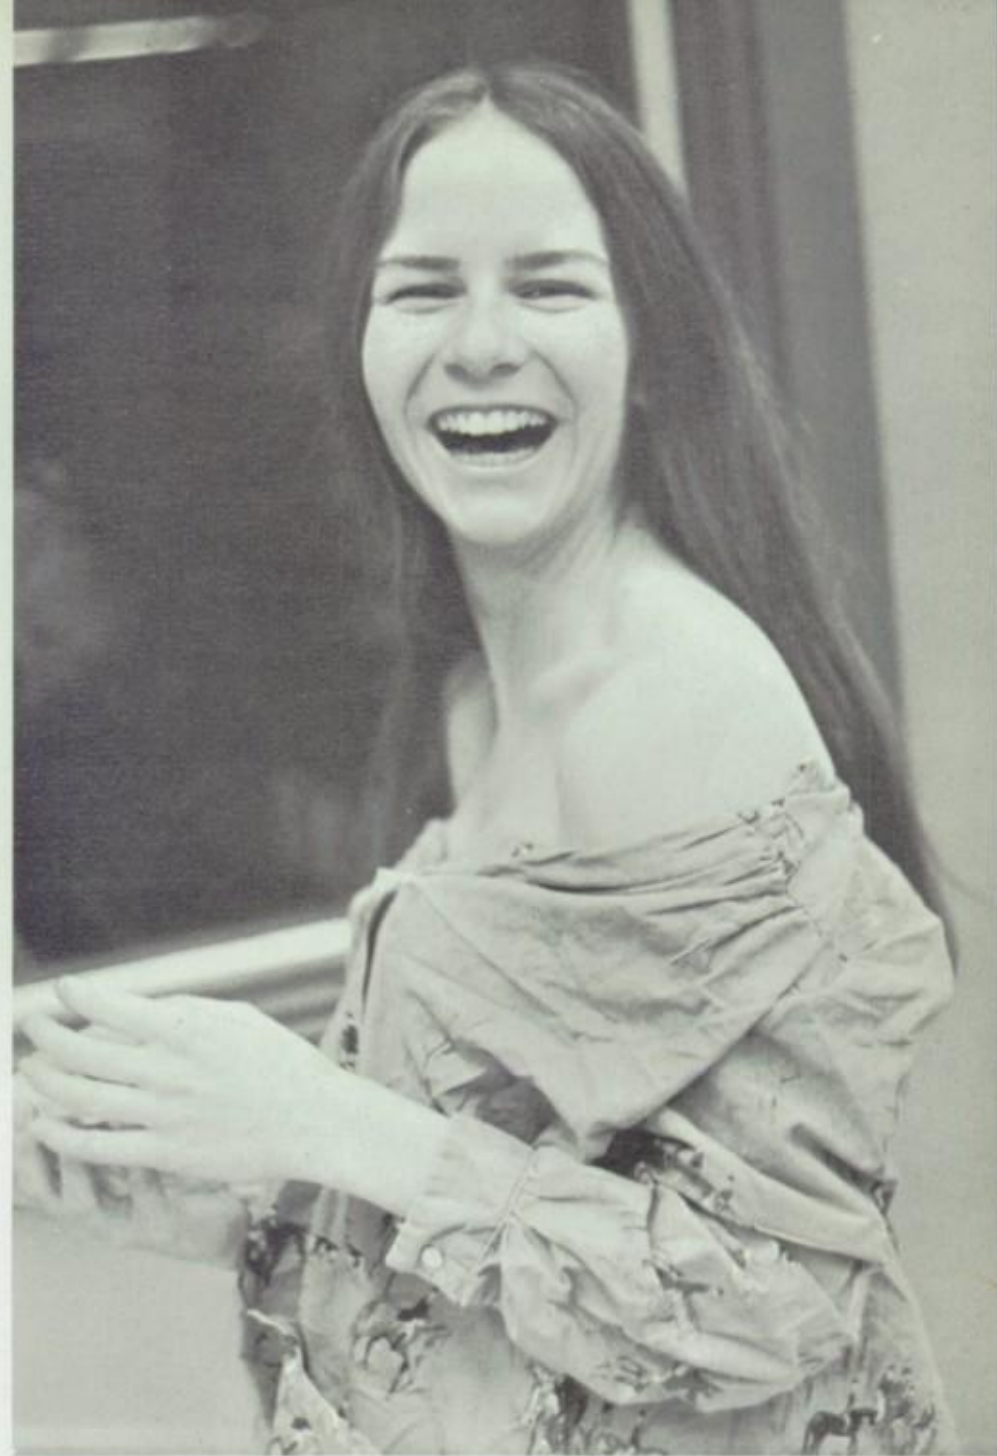

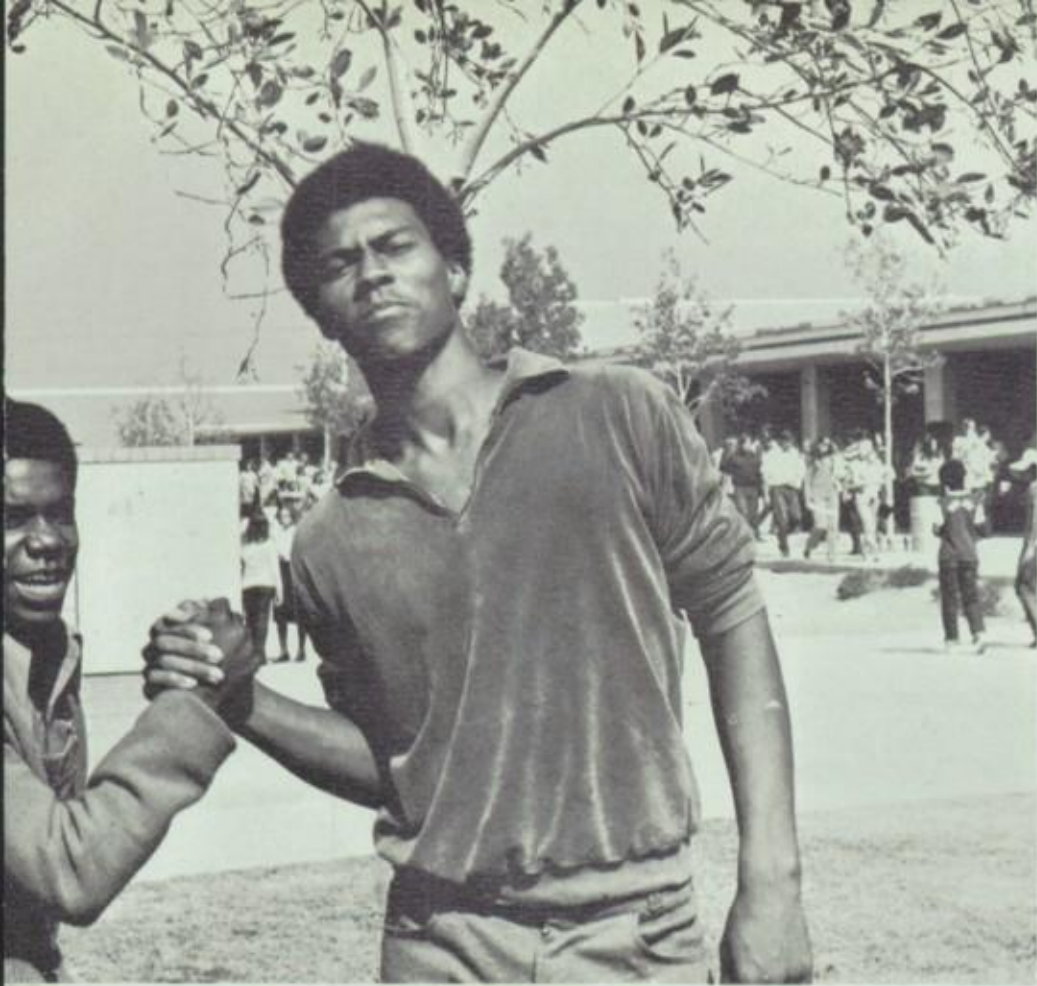

Deb. Seeing as how this is "our page," I'll sign here. Well, it's been a fun year. All kinds of exciting things. We were so close and then I moved. We lost alot of talking time, laughing, etc., but I won't ever lose the memories and appreciation I have. You've always been there to listen, laugh, cry, gossip and have fun with. Now, that we've both been "big college gals" for 1/2 year, I know you'll understand when I say that this seems anti-climatic, but fun. Deb, we've gone thru alot (remember our double-date W.A.L + B.K.) (remember our pic ~~at~~ the Sage faculty game).

Faces in the Crowd

Time to go, I suppose. Remember me forever & ever. Be good (ha, ha, ha) and always be a really big sweetie-pie. Ya know what else.

I really do love ya! hovies, J.P. "73"-rah!

Poly's femme-fatales were:

Janice Cooper — DAR good citizen, 1972 Girls' State Representative
Michelle Barrett — Walter Reed Army Institute of Nursing
Joan Shannon — Betty Crocker Homemaker Award

"Say, Ralph," says Paul Kleven, outstanding science student, "how'd you like to see the scar from my appendix operation?" as Ralph Haller, winner of the Southern California Edison Company Science Award, just laughs.

Naturally

Winners of the Hallmark Art Award are David Parks and Greg Martin.

"Oh, no! It's a film critic!" scream Bryan Koeff and David Parks, award winning film makers.

The class of 1973's valedictorian and salutatorian are, respectively, Janice Cooper and Robin Kojima.

The Spotlight Staff won the Sweepstakes Award at R.C.C.'s annual Journalism Day. Vicki Broach, Sue Katz, Carla Bratcher, Todd Littleworth and Lori Parmer are a few of this year's winners.

In the Diplomat's Circle

Members of this year's Diplomats' Club are: Harry Carpelan, Chris Brandon, Sarah Stevens, Bryan Koeff, Barbara Brown, Gary Weimberg, Brian

Terrett, Mike Bamberger, Ruth Mason, Larry Schnack, John Morris, Karen Drexler, and James Orr.

Avalon Hill Club, based on the game of strategy, was composed of David Beck, Gary Weimberg, Kevin Dickerson, Chris Brandon, Gordon Geller, and Harry Carpelan.

Precious and Few

Are the moments we two can share

Tri-Arts Festival

All year long, students in Industrial Arts classes create prize-winning projects which are displayed in the Tri-Arts festival. Mickey Ilich and Terry Drung are just two of the many students whose endeavors were displayed this year.

Tailoring and Fashion Design students, such as Terri Armstrong, Marion Wells, and Janice Cobb, put finishing touches on their garments before the fashion show.

Artcrafts student, Kathy Harris, shows off her silver jewelry that she made this year.

Bryan Koeff and David Parks have an easy time finding the connection between work and fun in their advanced painting class.

Chuck Everett threw pots, pitchers and vases, all of which were on display at the Tri-Arts Festival.

Ellen Johnson, Jennifer Havens, Janet Joseph, Debbie Jones, Anita Bourns. Row 3 — Debbie Friend, Patty Truman, Melanie Hawkins, Janice Fowler, Stacey Thomas, Karen Rawlings, Denise Matthews, Kim Butterwick, Mary Harris, Hilary Brown (president), Lori Parmer, Patty Conrad, Karen Kinney, Laurie Stivers, Sue Copeland, Debbie Teaford, Lisa Tuck.

DELICIOUS!

Ralph Haller likes the Candystripers at Riverside General Hospital so much that he'll go to any extreme just to be near them. The eleven causes of love-sick Ralph's broken leg are: Marilyn Gooderum, Debbie Geiger, Janet Edmondson, Grace deVries, Laura Lofeber, Vickie Lizee, Beverly Bishop, Tricia Lizee, Melinda Bartlett, Janice Cooper, and Laura Curtis. Orderly David Parks may not be delicious but he sure is sweet.

Helping to create international brotherhood are the members of the American Field Service club: Leslie Young, Cathy Webb, Jeanette Klaessens, Steve Svete, Susan Katz, Felicia Rounds, Sherina Oxford, Melissa Wilmeth, Lori Parmer, Larry Norton, Carolyn Van Schaik, Nancy Singleton, Jeryl Stahl, Sioux Beneniste, and Larry Schnack.

Jeanette Klaessens, exchange student from the Netherlands, was really at home with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stockwell.

Janet Joseph admires the beautiful A.F.S. carnation sent by a secret admirer.

Kathy Webb was Poly's A.F.S. student from Australia (home of the ever-popular koala). During her stay in the United States, she lived with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Parmer, their children, Lori and Mark, and their dog, Macduff.

Scanning the horizon, Steve Svete and Nancy Singleton look for the countries they'll be living in next year as A.F.S. students from the United States.

This year's A.F.S. president, Lori Parmer, supervised their Valentine's Day carnation sale.

Christian Fellowship Club

"A man's best friend is his Bible," agree the members of this year's Christian Fellowship Club: Karen McNabb, Sue Doyle, Doug McCullough, Phil Corr, Judy Colson, Greg Hawkins, Mr. Miller (advisor), and Darrell Jones.

Parlez-vous francais? "Oui! Oui!," agree the French Club members: Sioux BenViste, Bert Webb, Heidi Hochrein, David Arday, Bruce Nezart, Sandy Morrison, Mrs. Norton (advisor), Claudine Bach, Ingrid Hochrein, Marilyn Gregory, Kristin Meredith.

Fungus Amung Us

Out of the mouths of National Forensic League members Paul Ferrian (president), Laurie LeBlanc, Kevin Dickerson, Robin Kojima, and Larry Williams oft' came gems.

The fabulous Film Club members are: Gordon White, Brian Terret, Derek DeSilva, Gary Sanguinet, Janet Edmondson, Harry Brown, Glae Malley, Bryan Koeff, and David Parks.

The proud leaders of the Black Students' Union are: Row 1 — Renee Lawe, Deidre Bookman, Patty Mosby, Ellyn Stewart, Belita Ragsdale. Row 2 — Olla Mays, Verna Lyles, Michael Floyd, Larry Williams, Craig Goodwin (president).

Joyce Smith and John McKinley entertained the crowds at the assembly, "Young, Gifted, and Black," during Black Cultures Week.

Poly's league winning J.V. Tennis team: Kneeling — Mike Marr, Matt Byrne, Dale Yeager, Fritz Zimmer. Standing — Ron Roberts, Mark Conroe, Dan Hempy, Craig Conlon, Tim Miller, Coach Ken Fike.

Ron Roberts exhibits his fine backhand.

J.V. Tennis' number 1 player, Craig Conlon, sharpens his serve.

Mark Conroe fades back for a smashing overhead slam.

Keep on Trackin'

Powerful Jeff Phister pushes himself to the ultimate in concentration and strength as he competes in the shot put. Phister took first in a number of city and county meets and was undefeated in C.B.L.

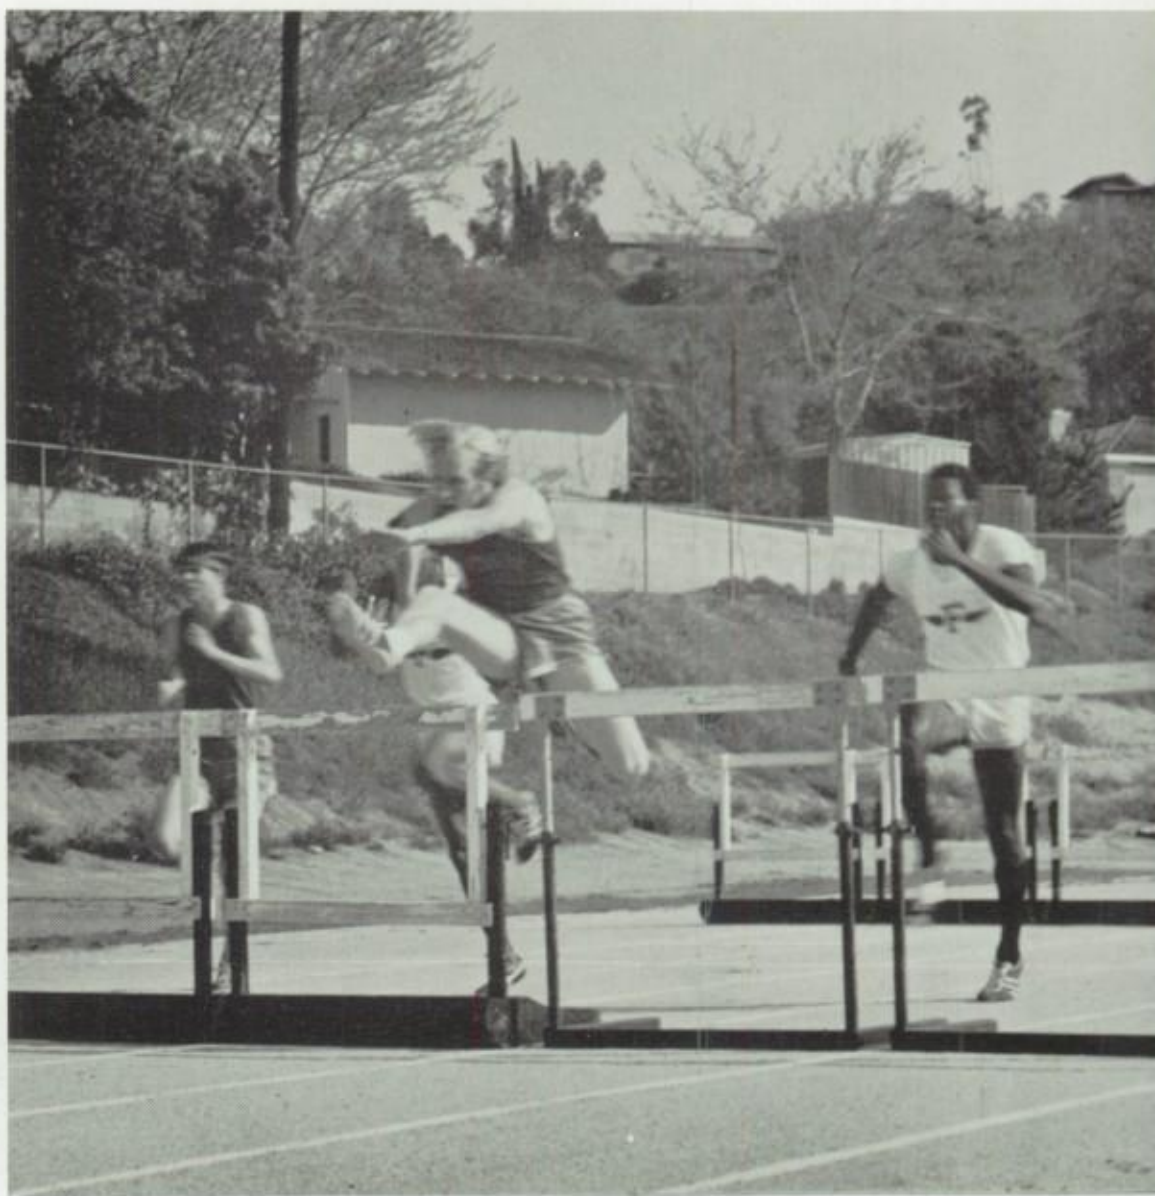

Mike McKeel, Poly's top middle distance runner, concentrates on getting a good start in the 880.

Tim Duncan always performed well for Poly in the one and two-mile runs.

Poly's best hurdler, Larry Mink, strides to another victory against Fontana. At far left, Dave Begin struggles to get 2nd place.

Varsity Baseball: Strong Contenders

Being a catcher is the most difficult and unpleasant job in baseball, as illustrated by the cut Pete Torrenti received on his nose when his mask broke.

Poly's swinging sophomore Loren Drake takes a healthy cut.

Poly's pitching ace Jack Wilson came through with many key victories for Poly.

Coach Rich Ramirez gives important instructions to Mike Lamantain.

Junior Scott MacPhee readies himself for a hard smash to first base.

"But, Coach," says Mike Mayeaux as he returns to the bench and Coach Ben Hammerschmidt's well-chosen "counsel."

Aqua Maidens

Spirited Sideliners

Our "beary" own mascot! Peggy Milson had a few crowd-pleasing tricks up her paw that kept people laughing.

The behind-the-scenes-Pep-Squad-Lady—Mrs. Gillespie, helped the squad to keep things moving.

Donna Killian as Commissioner of Pep, was invaluable to the Pep Squad. She served each girl and helped to unite them all.

Drilling their way into the hearts of many were: Row 1 — Barbara Ward, Mary Fontaine, Fran Bennett, Tina Feldman, Debbie Morris, Claire Mathis (captain). Row 2 — Danli Bayne, Mandy Aguilera, Sherrie Hoover, Joan Shannon, Janine Pourroy (co-captain), Pam Franklin, Kim Nelson, Pam Duncan, Margaret Berry, Debbie Palmer.

Cheery Leaders

These girls each have unique talents. Individually they are: Ellen Stewart, Gayla Peterson, Joanne Stephenson, Mary Scarborough, Kim Butterwick, Cindy Robles, and Kim Stelzner. But when they're together they are Poly's Varsity Cheerleaders.

Pretty Poms

This year's happy-go-lucky group of Poms had a special quality of charm in their smiles and routines. Sitting are Mardi McDonald and Karen Rawlings. Standing, from left to right, are: Janet Joseph, Mary Knight, Deanne Fiegenger, Kathy LeBarron, Judi Addison, and Debbie Jones.

"The sky's the limit," agree Flag Girls Dede Duncan, Patty Mosby, Richelle Zauner, Teresa Rumbarger, Sherry Quillin, and Debbie Williams.

Coming in out of the rain, Mr. John Elliot says, "Boy, it sure is wet outside. Makes the roads good and slick."

"Touche!" says Mr. Walter Davidson to Mr. Eugene Miller.

Mr. Ken Fike is doing "his thing" in the English office.

Mrs. Lorraine Thomas explains that the official symbol of Riverside is the Indian Rain Cross.

Mr. John Mossman and Mr. Dennis Sartini work off a little steam by playing handball at the YMCA.

Mr. Richard Rossi finds it easy to relax in the new Little Theater while directing a scene from The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie.

Mr. Phillip Morrione is getting the beat on his trumpet.

Art Crafts Instructor, Mr. Ted Moews, offers his students many choices of medium to work with.

"T.J.," Mr. Ted Johnston, has a new goatee to go with his new music room.

Mr. Andrew Ragus makes himself comfy as he prepares to put a student's craft into shape.

Master of the easel, Mr. Donald Wilcox, shares his professional opinion with two of his painting students.

The Master Artists

From Clarinet

To Clay

Mr. George Bronstrup likes to show off projects of his more advanced students.

Mr. Stanley Mamulski, Auto Shop teacher, gets a charge out of teaching his students.

Everyone lends a hand to keep the presses clean, even Mr. William Eckert, Graphic Arts teacher.

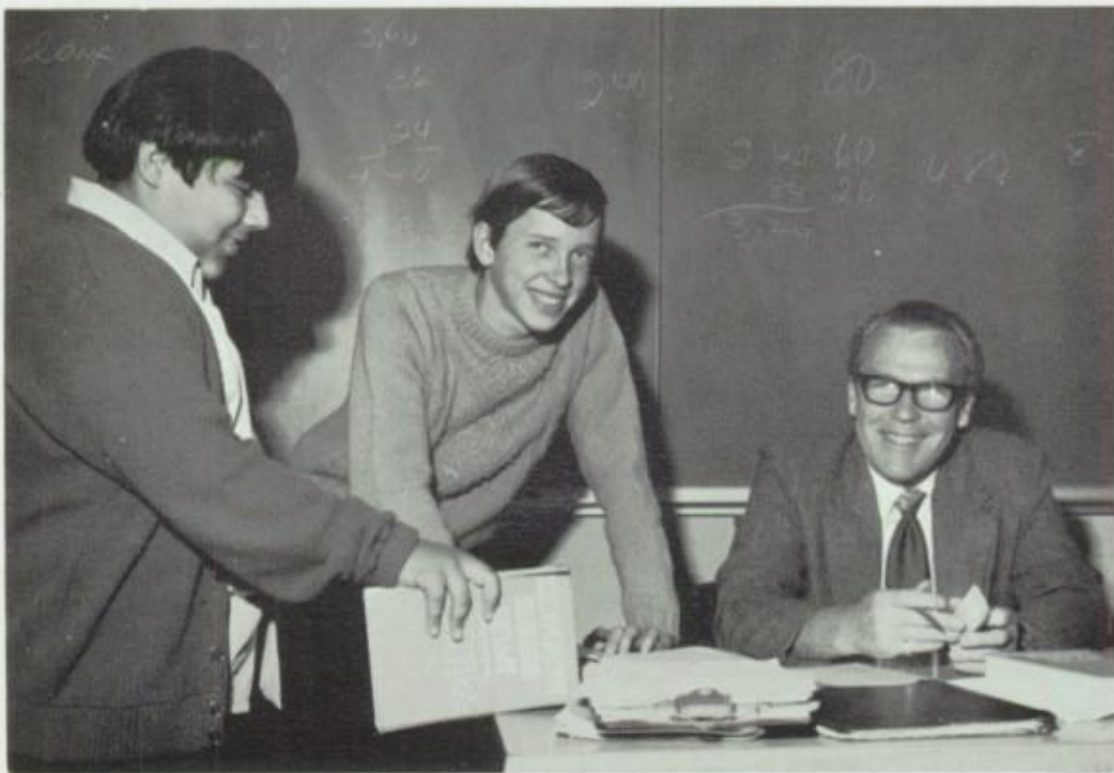

Mrs. Martha Pope is fitting Pam Duncan's fairy costume from Midsummer Night's Dream.

"You might even wear the garment you made, if you

Craig Schlaud and Raul Leon listen intently as Mr. Maurice Beckley explains the mysteries of Business Mathematics.

"So that's how it works," says Squeeze Moore as Mrs. Kross demonstrates knit one, purl two.

Tricksters of Their Trade

...ver finish it," says Mrs. Nikke Snedden.

"On your mark, get set, go!" says Mrs. Fanny Martin to her shorthand class.

Mrs. Shirley Smith busies herself with the department budget.

"Always read the labels!" cautions Miss Vicki Schouler.

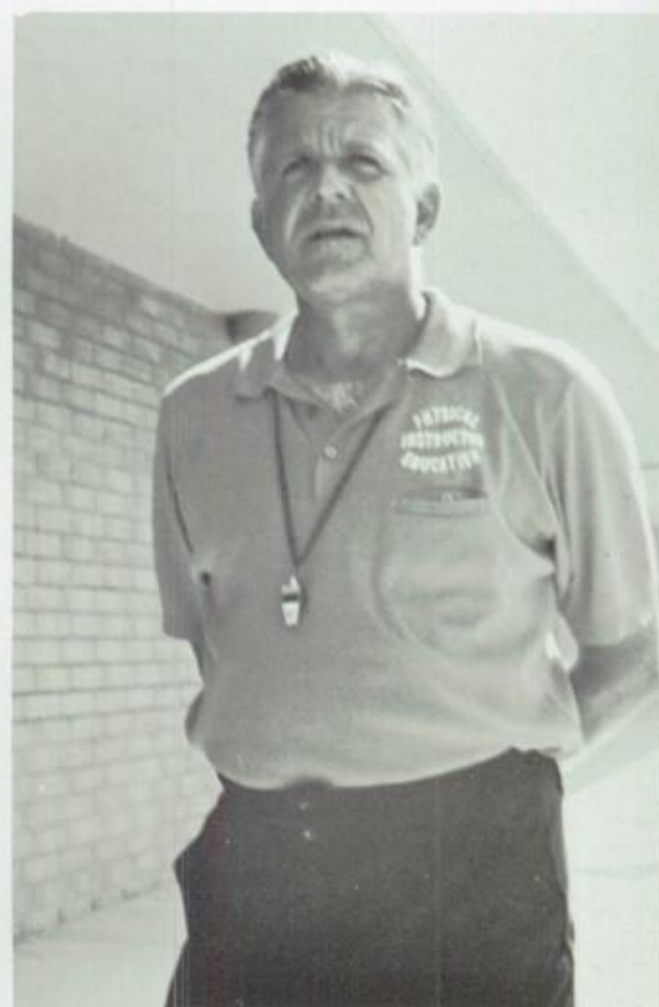

Even Mr. Robert Wright has to practice to keep one key ahead of his students.

Sergeant Kenneth Klinger, Major Robert Sagona, and Sergeant Paul Harris are the Army's representatives here at Poly.

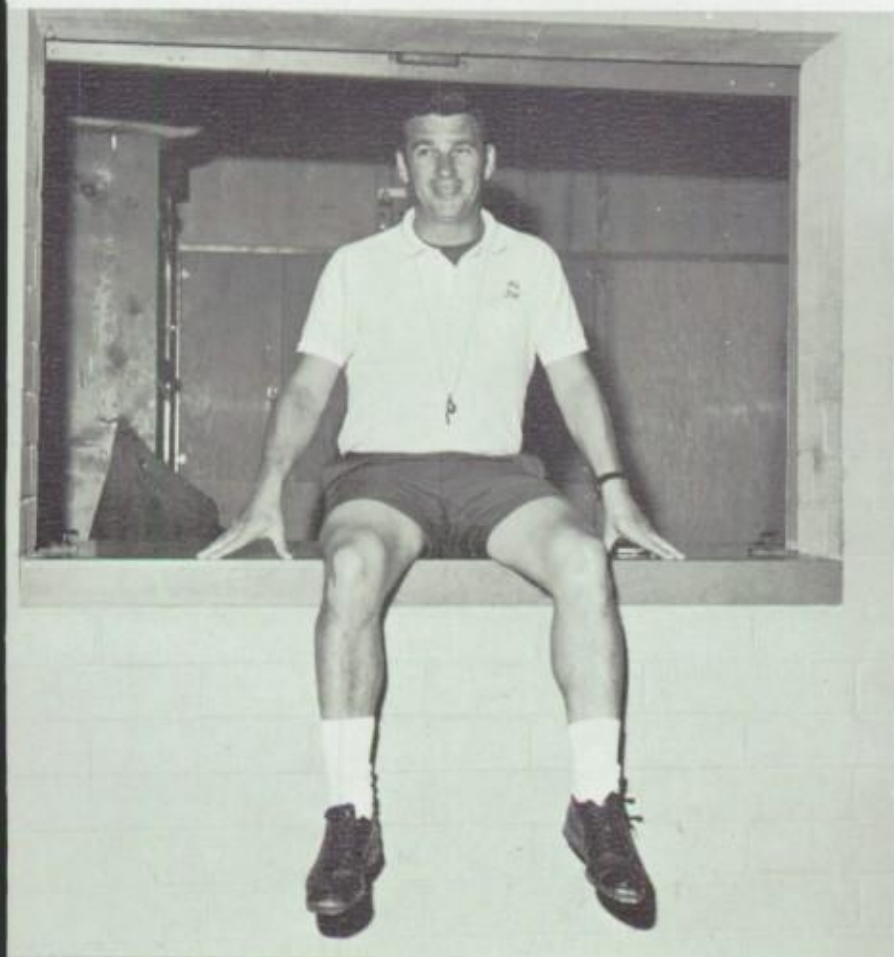

Mrs. Ginny Hews, Mrs. Barbara Rhodes, and Mrs. Dickson enjoy a tete-a-tete during a break.

"36 - 24 - 36?" dreams Coach Ray Halle. Why, that's the circumference of a basketball."

"Not the Quarry,

But the Chase . . .

"We're all out of equipment, but you can have me," says Coach Bob Weaver.

The new Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Nancy Graham, shows how to chop watercress.

Demonstrating the scale on the balance beam to her gymnastics class is Mrs. Pat Snelgrove.

Enjoying a vigorous game of checkers is Mrs. Christie Andersen.

Mrs. Vera Stricker points the way to the abode of the P.E. teachers, "Home, Sweet Home."

Mrs. Shari Miller thinks "snow" and heads for the slopes in weekend pursuits.

A man in top shape, Coach Al Jennings demonstrates good form on the parallel bars.

Not the Trophy, But the Race."

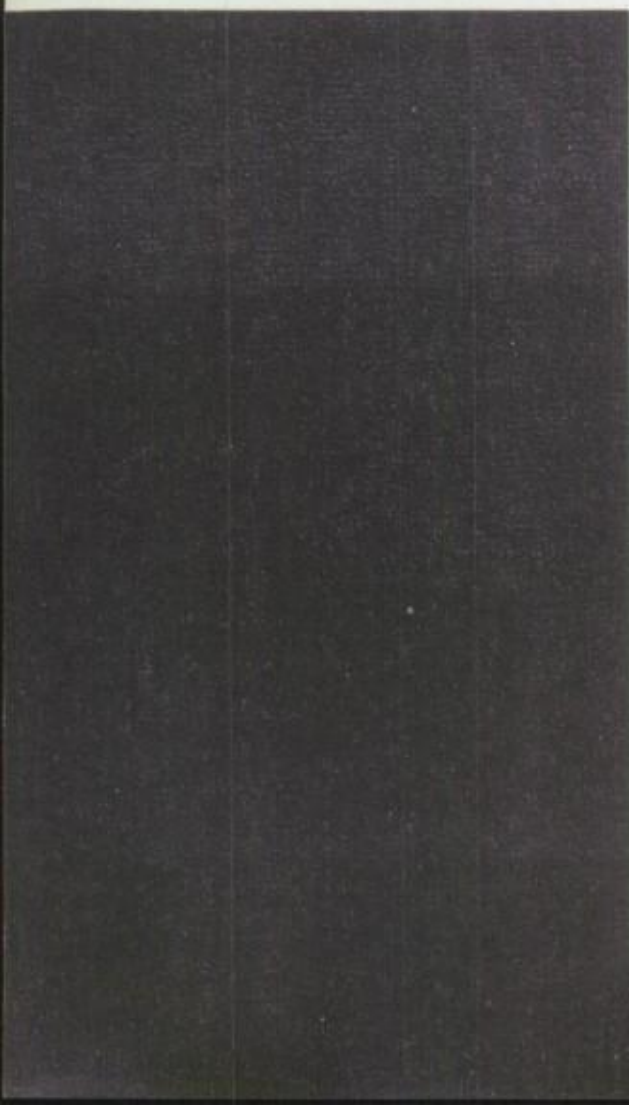

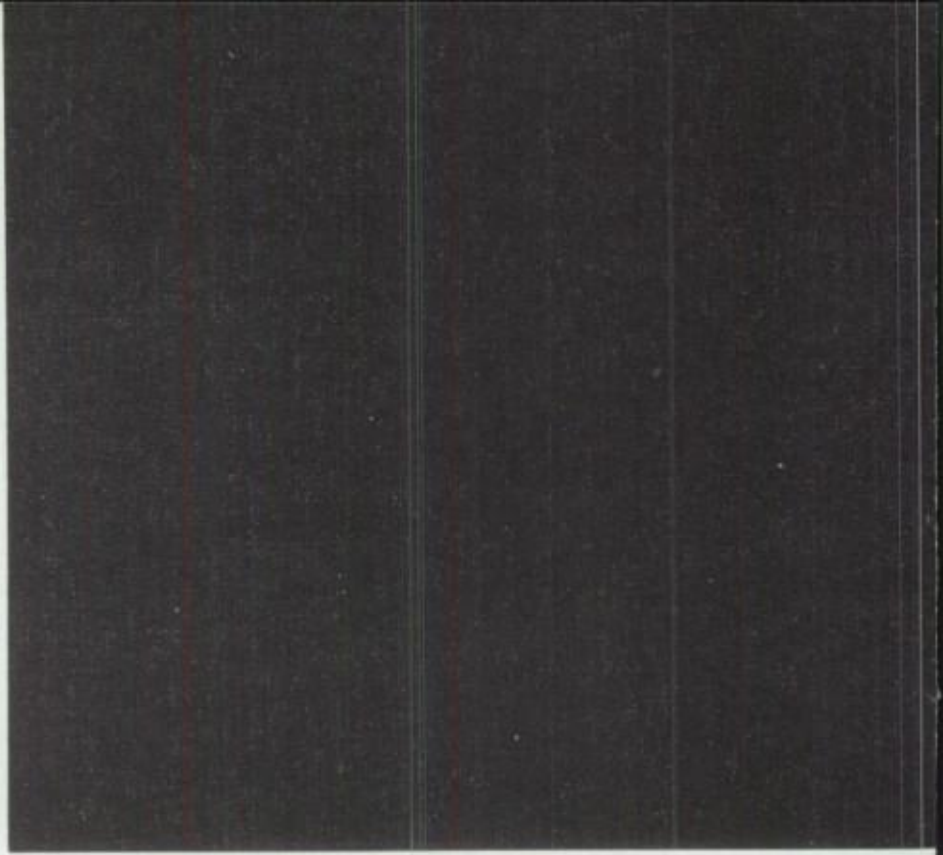

"My players are modest, rugged, and handsome," boasts Coach "Gentle Ben" Hammerschmidt at a football pep rally.

Modern Dance instructor Mrs. Diane Tolen keeps in step with her students.

Although still taking it easy after a serious illness, Coach Orrin Rife is glad to be back at Poly.

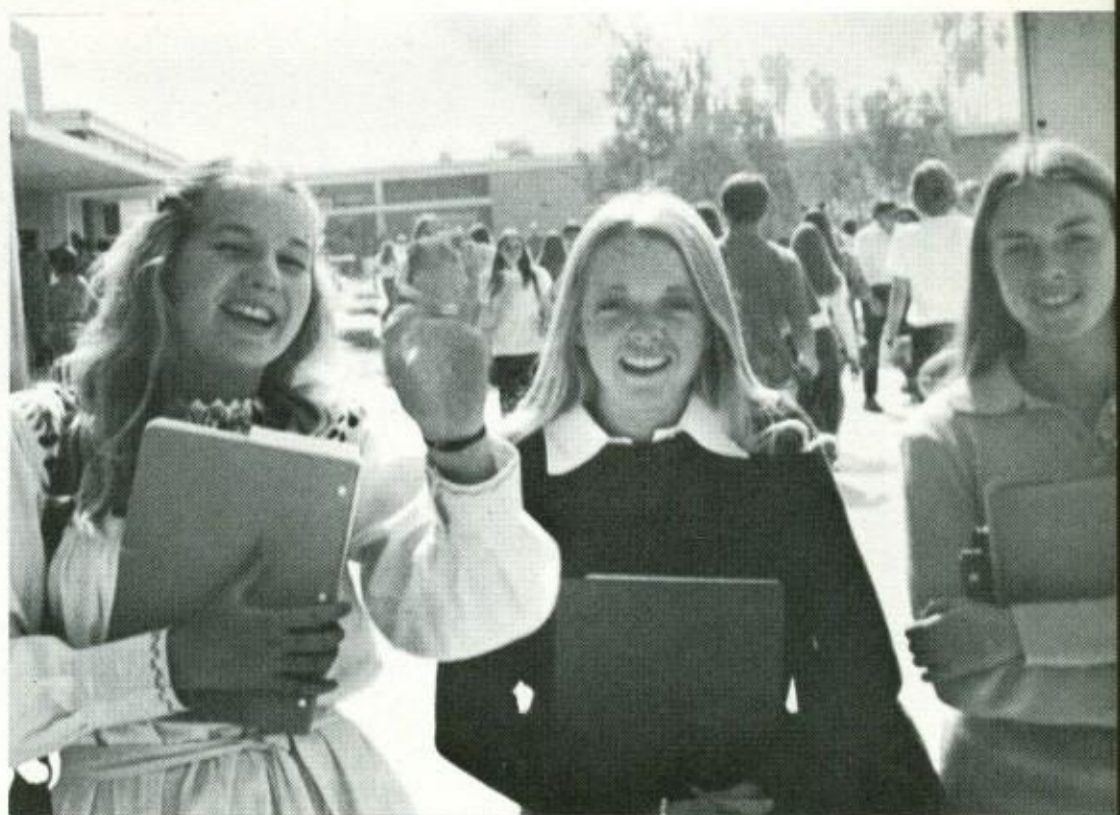

CLASSES

*"We can lift ourselves out of ignorance, we can find ourselves as creatures of excellence and intelligence and skill.
We can be free!"*

- Jonathan Livingston Seagull

seniors . . .

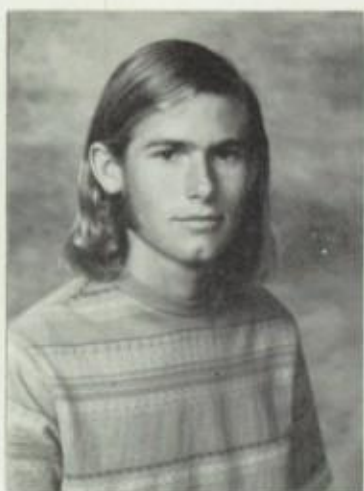

Life,
for any time at all,

Sophomores, Number three

Stepping up to show Schumtz the way were the smiling sophomore officers: Fritz Zimmer, president; Laura Burns, treasurer; Brett Smith, vice president; and Delise Honeywell, secretary. (Not pictured: Gina Robinson, social chairman).

“The morning wind Forever blows, the poem of creation is uninterrupted;
but Few are the ears that hear it.”

Henry David Thoreau

and Trying Hardest

The Schmutz worked hard on their float which contributed much to a successful Homecoming.

A New Class Emerges:

Freshmen rallied to sponsor a candy sale. Kathy Belliss, Cathy Latimer, Lisa Ritzau, Erin Bell, Barbara Brown, Kathy Robinson, Denise Smith urge all freshmen to actively participate in class activities.

Frosh Retaliate

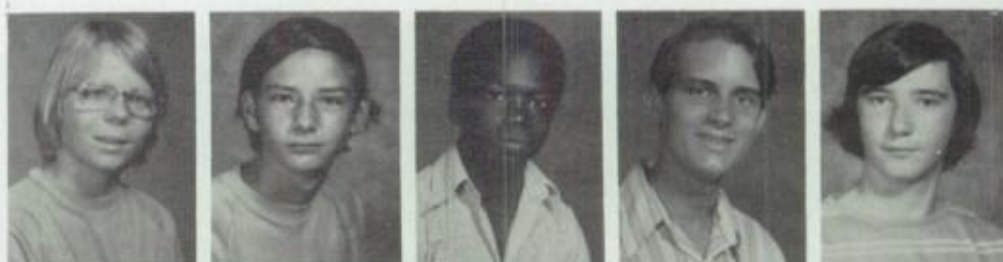

Attention sophomores, juniors, and seniors:

We, the freshman class of Poly High, would like to be accepted as the freshman students and not as something extra. We know there are only 174 of us and that we are the first freshman class and that this year is different than the years before at Poly. However, we don't like being called the "slimy freshmen get out of here, we don't want you."

--the freshman class

... the class sprang to life and defended itself.

"He who is not busy being born is busy dying"
- Bob Dylan

This annual is all about the activities at Poly, and the people who participated in them. We captured a portion of this year's activities, striving to show the variety of students who are intertwined in school life. Our theme of BIRTH was chosen as we saw the involved and creative students who share their lives and individual talents with classmates, teachers, and our entire school.

The concept of BIRTH has been evident this year in yet other aspects; the Little Theater and Fine Arts Complex were put to us for the first time, partly because of another new addition, the freshman class. This has been a productive year, a year of BIRTH. The KOALA staff has worked well all year and now presents their own production. We share many memories, yet these involve still others. We would like to recognize and thank the many helping hands:

Mrs. Doris Bishop, Advisor
Mr. Jack Cannicott, Publisher
Mr. Dick Caudle
and Rosemary, Citrograph Printers
Mr. Ralph Crowell
and Audrey, Harris' Photography Dep't.
Mr. Joe Ficarra, Administrative Advisor
San Diego Zoological Society, cover photo

Finally, we would like to reasssure you that, yes, we know KOALAS don't hatch from eggs!

Anne Seeley
